Christ's Entry into Jerusalem

Jean-Hippolyte Flandrin (1842-1848)
Fresco at Church of Saint-Germain-des-Prés, Paris

"... if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

(Luke 19.40)

On the evening of Palm Sunday two years ago, my elderly mother called to tell me that she felt very unwell. Over the next weeks, she suffered her own "passion" until her death on Mothers' Day. We are each assigned our own passion, our own "Way of the Cross" in one way or another.

Today's readings gives us a practice run through the passion drama(s) of our own lives in the company of Jesus. At the beginning of Mass we are invited to take up our palms and join in the procession of the ages - to celebrate all that is good, with overflowing faithfulness and spontaneous joy. Then we are plunged into the depths of Jesus' Passion. The long Gospel narrative underscores the steps of His suffering and our own: final moments of fellowship, then solitude, and finally the heartache and injustice of a life suddenly cut short by death. But this story is meant to encourage us as we enter into Holy Week (and all weeks that are "holy"): in the end, Jesus rises from the dead and gifts us with life and the Holy Spirit.

As we receive Jesus in Holy Communion today, let us recall that we are receiving our Redeemer's own strength to endure all sufferings and to rise again with Him in Easter glory.

From the Diocese

NOTE FROM THE UNIVERSITY CHAPLAIN

The academic year is wrapping up and the campus is winding down; but the light of God in students' lives need not be dimmed with the end of the semester. There are still a few things to put on the calendar:

- Our final student campus Confessions and Mass will be on April 12th at 11:30 am at Multifaith. Everyone is welcome.
- Father Lester will be celebrating a traditional Palm Sunday Mass at St. Francis Xavier Parish in Mill Bay at 9 and 11 am. All are welcome.

God bless all students as you prepare for your final exams.

Thank you to all the students I have come to know and serve over the last few months. It's been a joyful experience!

Happy Easter to you all!

Your University chaplain, Lydia Foch
