God's Neighbourhood

by Jean Allen

"Who is my neighbour?"

That's a pretty simple question and I think, for the most part, everyone understands the answer that there is no one who is not my neighbour. Whether it's someone of a different race, religion, political perspective or spiritual perspective, we are all called to love and serve one another.

The beautiful thing about this parable is that Jesus did not imply in any way that there were any prerequisites for the man who was beaten and robbed to receive mercy. The Good Samaritan generously helped him, no questions asked. The priest and the Levite immediately assumed the man was unworthy. According to Jewish belief at the time, the kind of misfortune the man experienced was one that only sinners would experience. Their inner response might have been, "You probably deserved it."

This parable is certainly good spiritual direction for us: have mercy on everyone without judgement, and I think most people at least try to practice this. But this parable is also good news for us. Jesus taught nothing that the Trinity does not practice. God doesn't have one set of precepts for us and a different set for himself. Have you ever thought of yourself as God's neighbour? When life has beaten you down and robbed you of your dignity and self-sufficiency, do you ever feel like God has crossed to the other side of the road and is judging you within the situation and judging your responses to it?

If God asks his people to love their neighbours as they love themselves, the truth is that God loves you as he loves himself. Wow! God does not remove himself when you are in need, are in pain or are living unconsciously. He doesn't condemn or criticize or tell you to get yourself together before he will help you. He picks you up and cares for you and instructs others to care for you as well. God is the Good Samaritan.

Makes you think, doesn't it?

From the Executive Committee

Dear parishioners,

We have some good news for you. In consultation with Bishop Gary Gordon, as of Sunday, 14 August 2022, Fr. Eduardo Da Silva Santos, Pastor of Our Lady of Fatima Parish, has agreed to celebrate the 9 am Mass every Sunday, here at Sacred Heart Parish.

While Fr. Eduardo remains the Pastor of Our Lady of Fatima, he is committed to celebrate the 9 am Mass with us, every Sunday, and has since informed his parish that from Sunday, August 14, there will be no 9 am English Sunday Masses at the Parish of Our Lady of Fatima. He has, instead, invited his parishioners to celebrate the Eucharist with us at Sacred Heart every Sunday morning.

Meanwhile, we continue to encourage you to celebrate and familiarize yourself with the Liturgy of the Word with Communion whenever we are unable to celebrate the Mass at Sacred Heart.

Moving forward in faith through unfamiliar circumstances, let us keep gratitude in our hearts and continue to pray for our parish, our neighbouring parish communities, our priests, and Bishop Gary, as together, we strive to meet the needs of all in this diocese. And as always, we remain grateful, and thank you for continuing to support and worship at Sacred Heart as a parish community, trusting always in the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the intercession of our Blessed Mother.

Yours in the service of Christ,
The Executive Committee
