THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

It feels as though Lent has barely begun and yet we are quickly drawing to its close. Like all of the seasons in the Church's calendar year, the season of Lent grants us the opportunity to participate in the mysteries of Jesus mission, life, death, and Resurrection. Just as Jesus' fasting for forty days in the wilderness fulfilled Israel's journey through the wilderness, we participate in the fast of Jesus to better prepare ourselves to fulfill our Baptismal call. We are called and drawn to the love of God through many various images and experiences. But each Lent, we are called to journey beyond our images and experiences to rediscover the face of Christ. Starting next week, our indoor statues and paintings will be covered up as we deepen our Lenten fast. This Sunday however, we have a brief and rosy reprieve as flowers return to the sanctuary and the priest wears a lighter vestment.
