THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

Be It Resolved...

"And this is the judgement, that the light has come into the world, and the people loved darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil."

Definition of judgement: to assess and resolve.

Definition of resolve: settle, sort out, solve, find a solution for, find an answer to, work out, straighten out, deal with, set right, rectify, iron out, reconcile.

The word 'judgement' has extremely negative connotations in our heads. We immediately equate it with condemnation. If we humans have judged something, it usually means we have grimly decided it's bad or unworthy and we project that attitude onto God whenever the word judgement arises in relation to him. However, God's judgement is much more in tune with 'assessment and resolution'. He assesses our situations and if he finds anything unhealthy, it is not in his nature to turn away in condemnation. He desires to resolve and restore.

"God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world but in order that the world might be saved through him."

God sees that the world often prefers darkness to light. He sees many people who have a distorted understanding of good and evil or of light and darkness. He knows that usually the love of darkness is not a mature or conscious choice but is the consequence of poor teaching, limited choices and cultural influences. The light is a threat to what they have always known and have accepted as right and normal. God will do whatever he can to resolve and heal that situation.

Don't fear the judgement of God; welcome it with joy. His assessment and restorative healing is available every moment of every day not just at the end of your life or the end of time. Ask for it with confidence. Ask for it often.

It is a place of relief, comfort and healing. Jean Allen

Pastoral Ministry Appointment – Church of the Ascension

As we continue to remember Fr. Michael Favero, Pastor of the Church of the Ascension, in our prayers as he undergoes treatment for multiple myeloma, we remain mindful of the pastoral needs of the People of God. Given that Fr. Favero has been away from the parish for cancer treatments for several weeks, Bishop Gary has, in consultation with the Priest Personnel Committee, made the following pastoral ministry appointment:

Effective March 15, 2021: Fr. Thomas Chinnappa, on loan from the Diocese of Mysore in India, appointed Administrator – Pro Tem of the Church of the Ascension in Parksville.
