Wedding at Cana

by Julius Schnorr von Carolsfeld (Public Domain)

“Do whatever He tells you.”

(John 2.5)

Jesus and His mother begin to work quietly behind the scenes to remedy the situation. Jesus performs His first miracle by turning the water-filled jars into the finest wine yet to be served. What is Jesus inviting us to learn from this wonderful miracle?

Jesus' miracle begins with His interest and sensitivity in assisting the newlyweds. Rather than drawing attention to Himself, Jesus' focus is on preserving the dignity and honour of this joyous occasion. He wants to show us that at the heart of being His disciple is the loving and tender care for the needs of our sisters and brothers. When His mother says to the servant, “Do whatever He tells you,” she is also speaking to us. She is calling us to be more compassionate and merciful in serving and caring for the poor, the marginalized and suffering within our families, our communities and in our world.

Let us pray to be open to the presence of the Holy Spirit inviting us to use our gifts in quiet service for the common good. United in Christ's love and friendship we reach out, listening, and responding with tender hearts to the cries of a broken world.

Dear Friends of Anawim

Everyone at Anawim House would like thank you for your support. The care and compassion you have shown for those seeking acceptance and support at Anawim is overwhelming.

This Christmas season has been particularly challenging for those under housed not only by the pandemic, but also by the severe weather. Your generous donations have demonstrated to God's precious poor that they matter.

Pastoral Care Training

The valuable and free Pastoral Care Outreach Training series will be online again this winter.

Nine Zoom sessions on Saturday mornings from 9:30 to noon, starting Jan 29, 2022, until Apr 9 (no sessions March 19 & 26: Spring Break).

Participants who attend all sessions will receive a Certificate of Completion. This training program will show why those who visit the sick are unique, and how they can offer more than a friendly visit – to be the hands and face of Christ to others. Until pastoral access to homes, hospitals, nursing homes, and health care facilities are fully available, Bp. Gary feels "it is important to have parishioners trained: ready to provide a caring and compassionate experience to those who are most in need."

You will need a phone number, an email address, computer, tablet, or smartphone with speakers, a microphone, webcam, and a reliable Internet connection.

Please register through sacredheart@rcdvictoria.org by Jan. 24, 2022.

Cyrille's Talk

Building a Culture of Compassion in the Catholic High School
 by Danny Brock & Cyrille Santos

Jesus exhorted his disciples to love one another as he loved them and to be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. But overcrowded schedules, looming deadlines, and competing demands can set a frenetic pace in the Catholic high school. Our students join the fray, trying to keep up.

They proffer a cooperative demeanour for teachers, while inside they are falling apart from stress and anxiety. A culture of compassion can seem more a heavenly ideal than an earthly reality. It's time for a reset.

Building a culture of compassion takes more than words in a mission statement or promotional brochure. It is hard work. But this is what students long for, and when they receive it they realize that the school really does care about them.

Between the covers of Cyrille's Talk the reader will taste and see what a culture of compassion is like and discover what it takes to make it happen.
