29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“... for the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

(Mark 10.45)

Jesus overturns the standard conception of power as something that comes at the expense of the ruled. He also explodes the disciples’ related assumption that their proximity to Him bears certain special privileges that set them above others. The climax of this weekend’s Gospel is forceful: Jesus came to serve and not to be served. True leadership is servant leadership and those who are greatest in the kingdom must become like slaves, willing to suffer and even die, for the common good. The glory of the kingdom comes not through violent means, but rather in and through the Cross.

Like the disciples, we are not immune to distorted conceptions of power and leadership. Living in the kingdom demands that we challenge our tendencies to side with those in power against the weak. The world will know us as true disciples of Jesus when we commit ourselves in loving service to the common good.

MEMO

Date: October 12, 2021
 To: Clergy, Parishes, Religious, Principals, Staff
 From: Bishop Gary Gordon
 Cynthia Bouchard, Chancellor
 Re: Pastoral Ministry Appointments

Bishop Gary has, in consultation with the Priest Personnel Committee, made the following pastoral ministry appointments:
 Effective September 1, 2021:

- Fr. Robert Ryu, on loan from the Diocese of Wonju, Korea, appointed Pastor of the Korean Community, for a period of three years.
- Joseph Yuson, seminarian in formation for the Diocese of Victoria, will complete his year of pastoral internship at Holy Family/Notre Dame Parish in Port Alberni.

Effective October 12, 2021:

- Fr. John Laszczyk and Fr. Dino Villadiego, in conformity with Canon 517§1, appointed to St. Andrew's Cathedral "in solidum" [pastoral leadership and team ministry]. Fr. John Laszczyk will serve as moderator and have responsibility for reporting to the Bishop.

During these challenging times, we are invited to welcome and embrace the opportunities to grow in faith as we continue to move towards a model of collaborative and shared ministry in the Diocese.

Your support and prayers for the ongoing pastoral needs of our Diocese are greatly appreciated.

Bishop's Appeal Week Three

October 16-22

Spirit of Hope – Healing & Reconciliation

The theme for the Bishop's Appeal 2021 is dedicated to Indigenous projects and reconciliation initiatives. Working together we can make a significant impact to support local Indigenous lead projects. In addition, it helps support the ongoing work of Religious Sisters in First Nations communities within the Diocese. Reaching our parish goal means the parish will retain $25,500 for the maintenance and upkeep of our grounds, and the remaining 50% will be donated to charities.

Please give prayerful consideration towards our Appeal and know that you are making a significant difference right here at home.

Pro-Life Conversation Training

Conversations about abortion can be challenging and awkward. However they are essential to protect the lives of pre-born children who are the weakest and most vulnerable members of the human family.

Join Cam Côté, co-host of 'The Pro-Life Guys Podcast', for a 90-minute workshop on Thursday, Oct. 28th from 7:30 to 9 pm, focused on equipping you with the tools you need to have compassionate and compelling conversations about this important issue.

Contact Isabelle Boutin (isabelleboutin@hotmail.com) to register, for more information, or for the video call link.
