THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

Life is precious and precarious. However, it is not the vulnerability of life that gives it value. We are made in God's image and you cannot add to that dignity. However, it is the vulnerability of life that may impel us to realize our human dignity through the eyes of faith.

Last week, Fr. Michael was ordained to the priesthood. It was a joyous time for the whole Church as family and friends came from afar to celebrate with us. Also, priests from all over Canada came to celebrate the gift of Fr. Michael's life. After the celebration however, one of the visiting priests, Fr. Trevor Plug, passed away while visiting our city. He was only 32 years old and he just celebrated his first anniversary as a priest.

Although Fr. Trevor's passing is a tragedy, there is a beauty through the darkness. Priest's are reminded to celebrate each Mass as if it were his first, last, and only Mass. As we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, this has been made even clearer to me. I could celebrate one Mass as a priest and my life would be complete and in four years I have celebrated a lot of Masses.

Christian life is punctuated with Thanksgiving! I am thankful that I met Fr. Trevor for his last week in this life. Now that he is approaching the Altar of God, his priestly identity has not ended, but it has been fulfilled. That being said, please do not wait to show gratitude in your own life. And may this celebration of the Thanksgiving of Jesus Christ in the Mass be our own. God Bless.
