THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

I am writing these notes while in Toronto visiting my mother and my sister and her family. Because my mother and I are in active ministry, Christmas visits are not really an option and so we try to get together a little later.

I also wanted to get some break time in before we start the solemn season of Lent, which is fast approaching. It is good to start planning our Lenten observances of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving so as to train ourselves for discipleship.

However, before Lent begins, I will happily enjoy a festive time with family. I hope you will do the same.

God bless.

Those who are ill.

Dorothy Bailey, Arnie Cavanagh, Wayne Carlson, Edmee Kearney, Ursula Lowe, Edvige Peluso, Ben Perri, Mike Short and Matilda “Tilly” Wilson.

For the deceased

Robert Andrew Linsley, Teresa Melendez-Duke, Jose Manuel de Lima and Joe Reda.

One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic

Fr David has started teaching a course on the early beginnings of the Catholic Church.

Classes are such that anyone can join in at any time throughout the course. Classes are held on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of February & March at 7:00pm in the Parish Hall.

The course covers the history of the early Church through the missions of the Apostles Peter, Paul, and John as they journeyed from Jerusalem throughout the Roman Empire. We see how the Churches founded by these Apostles developed their own theological and worship style and how this diversity laid the foundations for the Church of today.

The course starts at 7pm. A brief social will begin at 6:30pm. Feel free to bring snacks & beverages to share. There is no official text book, but a reading list is provided. No registration required.
