*Have a restful and meaningful
BC Family Day long weekend!*

“... the measure you give will be the measure you get back.”

(Luke 6.38)

“I say to you who listen...” Jesus is very clear in today’s Gospel passage: if we want to follow Him, then a particular stance toward other people will be required. This is not the first such lesson He has shared with His disciples, but it is the most demanding and the most revolutionary. It calls into question basic instincts of self-preservation, of fighting back when we are attacked, of emerging the winner.

Love your enemy, practise non-violence, forgive and be peacemakers. Surely these demands shocked and challenged Jesus’ disciples as they might shock us today who live in a culture that often seeks revenge and retribution first. But Jesus expects that we will treat the other, especially the enemy and stranger whom we might fear or distrust, as we want to be treated. Living up to this expectation will challenge us throughout our lives.

In less than two weeks, we will begin our Lenten journey, a time of reflection and taking stock on our way to Easter. This passage might be our guide as we reflect on how we are meeting Jesus’ expectations. Are we striving to embed this stance in our lives? Have we slipped back into old ways? Our life as kingdom-dwellers may depend on how seriously we take this command.
