Into the Deep: De-Mystifying Palliative Care:

Palliative care helps people with serious illness to live as well as they can, for as long as they can. However, most people feel that palliative care is only something that is offered once there is "nothing more to be done" for their disease, and that death is close at hand. This presentation will provide knowledge of what palliative care is, its benefits, and how it can be accessed. The session will be offered by the Archdiocese of Vancouver on Friday, Nov. 27 from 7:00 - 8:30 pm via Zoom Register online for free at <https://beholdvancouver.org/events/de-mythifying-palliative-care>.

The speaker will be Romyne Gallagher MD, CCFP(PC) FCFP, who has over 30 years of experience in managing patients with advanced disease. She retired as a physician in the Providence Health Care Palliative Care Program and the St. Paul's Complex Pain Centre in 2018. Dr. Gallagher is a Clinical Professor in the Department of Family Practice at UBC and a member of the Division of Palliative Care. She was the founding director of the Division of Palliative Care at UBC from 1997 to 2003. Romyne Gallagher is the author and coauthor of 50 peer-reviewed publications and book chapters on palliative care and pain management. She was honored to receive the 2017 Saint Gianna Beretta Molla Award from the Catholic Physicians Guild of Vancouver Diocese in recognition of her work to illuminate issues around care of those with serious illness.
