THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

This Sunday is Ascension Sunday. Today Christ is taken from our sight as we prepare to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Just like for the Apostles, there are times when Christ disappears from our own sight. Sometimes when you read the news, the weight of human suffering appears insurmountable. From the dangers in Sudan, Daesh, and the Philippines. Even in our own country, there are ongoing and developing threats to human life and freedom that we ignore to our peril. However, in the midst of all these dangers, Christ promised to be with us always until the end. We do not work for the victory of truth and justice. He who is the truth has already won the victory, we are called to make it our own and to choose it. Love those who are next to you for that is how we bring light. God Bless.

Those who are ill.

Dorothy Bailey, Vicky & Thomas Dziekan, Edmee Kearney, Ursula Lowe, Lois Marcoux and Ben Perri.

Those who have deceased.

Fr. William (Bill) Hill, Gerald MacPherson and Heather Sluchinski.
