Jesus rejected at Nazareth
by Alexandre Bida

“... no Prophet is accepted in his hometown.”

(Luke 4.24)

The people of Nazareth knew Jesus - he was Joseph's son. He spoke so well, this hometown boy! But Jesus' message fell on deaf ears. Their eyes did not "see" Jesus for who He was, nor did their hearts respond to His mercy. They could not accept Him as the healer, Saviour, and Messiah that He said He was.

Truth is always challenging. The pride and self-righteousness of the people of Nazareth prevented them from understanding who Jesus was. Instead of accepting Jesus as their Lord and Saviour, they attempted to murder Him by throwing Him off a cliff.

Are we like the crowds that followed Jesus, hungry to know Him as their healer and redeemer, or are we like the people of Nazareth? Do we come to Mass week after week trusting in our own opinions of Jesus, proud that we belong to His Church, seeing but not perceiving Him, and hearing His Word but not integrating it into our lives?

Today Jesus is present at Mass just as He was in the synagogue at Nazareth. What will we do with Jesus? Will we, too, try to toss Him off a cliff outside of church because His Words are inconvenient and uncomfortable? Or will we humbly and hungrily follow Him as He walks through our midst and continues on His way?

Cyrille's Talk

Building a Culture of Compassion

in the Catholic High School
by Danny Brock & Cyrille Santos

Building a culture of compassion takes more than words in a mission statement or promotional brochure. It is hard work. This is what students long for. When they receive it they realize that the school really does care about them.

Between the covers of Cyrille's Talk the reader will taste and see what a culture of compassion is like and discover what it takes to make it happen. Order through your nearest bookstore, or online through Amazon.ca.

$14 | 108 pp. | Resource Publications

Danny Brock has taught religion and directed retreats in Catholic high schools in the USA and Canada for over thirty years. He is the author of Teaching Teens Religion (2009), Catholicity Ain't What It Used to Be (2014), and the editor of I Met God Today (2017).

Cyrille Santos was born in Manila, Philippines, and raised in Victoria, British Columbia, Canada. She has attended Catholic schools from K to 12, and is currently pursuing a degree at the University of Victoria to become a high school teacher.
