THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

This past Saturday morning was our Parish clothing and attic treasures sale. It is one of three sales in our Parish where we help charitable organizations in our community and around the world. Last year, we raised roughly $18,000 and I am profoundly grateful for everyone who offered their time, talents, or treasures to this endeavour. I am also proud to say that our Parish does not keep a dime of the proceeds.

Next Sunday, I will be in Humboldt Saskatchewan to offer a Parish mission there. I was asked by an old classmate to help out and so Fr. Dean will be assisting us with his presence and care. During the 10am Mass next week we will also be crowning our statue of Mary with our children in honour of the month of May.

God bless
