31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“... to love God ... and to love one’s neighbour as oneself.”

(Mark 12.33)

In today’s Gospel we are privy to a conversation Jesus has with a Pharisee. Amidst the debaters whose agenda is to trap Jesus, this one Pharisee reveals his heart with the acknowledgment of the first commandment. Jesus affirms the man’s faith. This declaration establishes the boundaries of the Kingdom of God. The debaters back off and are afraid to ask Jesus any more questions. They refuse to love God who is standing in front of them.

It has been said that to say yes to one thing is to say no to a thousand others. Our decision to worship God with everything in us means saying no to the world. St. Augustine said: “Love God and do what you will.” Our commitment to the Lord is in response to the amazing love He has shown us. In the Eucharist we truly immerse ourselves in the Divine Relationship with the Communion of Saints. All the gifts of heaven resonate within us. Dorothy Day once said she never attended a boring Mass. She was right.

As we live this commitment to the Lord our God, our path is clear - perhaps not easy, but definitely in the Godzone.
