THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

Well, I asked you to pray to St Joseph for our building and I am certain that you did. It is hard to argue with results. The sacristy and washrooms have come together beautifully.

As we finished one project, we also noticed a leak coming through the roof of our worship space. What is interesting is how we go forward. We could interpret this as a calamity and complain before the Lord. Or we could thank God that a small problem was noticed before it could become a big problem.

As Lent approaches, we prepare to “get our houses in order”. Sometimes, a small leak is a blessed opportunity to teach us where to fix our lives. With each challenge, we become wiser and better prepared to hear the call of the Lord. Thank you St Joseph!
