THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

As we get deeper in Lent, we also come closer to the celebration of the Resurrection of Christ. Because of its fasting and discipline, Lent may leave us with the feeling that faith is doom and gloom. More accurately, the discipline of Lent is a knowing and voluntary acceptance of the discipline of life. Tragedy and trial WILL occur in life, and Lent trains us how to do without the beauties of life that may be holding us back from a new and abundant life. However, even more positively, when we acknowledge the emptiness of earthly joys, we can enjoy them the more. Pleasures diminish in return. However, if we work to train our hearts and senses to experience Christ in the world, chocolate can taste even better. Also, if we are less fearful of distasteful food, we may be open to new friends that our over discerning tongue might have prevented us from making.

Those who are ill.

Clovis Amando, Daphne Bowles, Arnie Cavanagh, Marnie Essery, Wladyslaw Kuzminski, Agnieszka Lassak, Ursula Lowe, Ben Perri, Lawrence Peterson, Marguerite Pigeau, Evelyn Vincent, and Charlotte Zalanfy.

Those who are deceased.
