THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

“None of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.”

First Reading: Wisdom 9.13-18

Who can discern what the Lord wills?

Responsorial Psalm.

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Second Reading: Philemon 9b-10, 12-17

Take him back, no longer as a slave but as a much beloved brother.

Gospel: Luke 14.25-33

Whoever of you does not give up all that he has cannot be my disciple.

If there are members of your family or friends who are ill or have died, and for whom you wish to pray for, please contact the Parish office to provide their names.

Pray for those who are ill.

Dorothy Bailey, Vicky Dziekan; Bill Finlay, Marie Kalnciems, Edmee Kearney, Mary Loughran and Ben Perri.

Pray for the deceased.

LITURGY, THE SACRAMENTS, PRAYER AND THE WORD OF GOD

Parish Mission—Fr Philip Chircop

Monday, Sept 12 to Wednesday, Sept 14 at 7:00pm

Practicing Mercy Kissed by Mercy. Embraced by Love

Pope Francis announced an Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy. It started on the feast of the Immaculate Conception, Dec 8, 2015, and ends on Nov 20, 2016, the feast of Christ the King. Hence mercy will be the focus of this parish retreat (mission).

It has been said that mercy is the capacity to enter the chaos of another, facilitating healing, wellness and wholeness in the process. In this parish mission we will explore what it means to believe in a God whose mercy is fresh every morning and our call to practice mercy in all our encounters, on a daily basis.

Monday evening

Tending to the broken and wounded

On this first evening we will turn our attention to the wounded and broken world we live in and how we are challenged to pay attention, drop our plans and agendas, and do what needs to be done to heal ourselves, the world and the planet. On this first evening we will consider the practices of seeing differently, becoming womb-like centers of concern and hospitality, and risking touch and radical engagement.

Tuesday evening

Acknowledging our lostness in order to be found

On the second evening we will focus our energies on what it means and what it feels like to be lost and what it takes to return home into the loving embrace of the God whose other name is Mercy. Here we will talk about the practices of patience, exploration and celebration.

Wednesday evening

Returning to the source of our healing

On the third and final evening we will explore what it is in our lives that separates us from community and what can we do to become whole again.

Here we will talk about the practices of self-expression, healthy relating to others, and the importance to keep returning to the source of our healing with a grateful heart.

Collection:-

A love offering collection will be taken to help cover the cost of our Parish Mission. If you would like to make a donation towards this cost (mission and airfare) by cheque, please make your cheques payable to “Sacred Heart Parish” and in the memo line, please indicate “Parish Mission”.

The Mercy of God

As we conclude the Year of Mercy, join Fr. Harrison for a brief course on the Mercy of God at the Cathedral parish. Spanning 4 weeks, we will look at Mercy in Scripture, John Paul II's Encyclical on Mercy, the Divine Mercy Devotion, and concluding with Pope Francis' letter "Misericordiae Vultus" which called for the extraordinary jubilee in which we are in. The course begins on October 4th and ends on October 25, beginning each Tuesday at 7pm in the Seghers' Hall. Contact: Alice: 250-388-5571 or standrewscathedral@gmail.com
