THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

Starting this coming week, weekday Masses will be cancelled as I will be out of town until the 21st. First, I will be with our other priests on our annual study days. Each year, the clergy gather to grow in fellowship and undergo ongoing formation on a number of different topics.

Right after the study days, I will be flying to visit my mother and sister (niece and brother-in-law) in the Toronto area. While I am away, the priests from St Joseph the Worker Parish will be celebrating Mass with us. A big thank you to Frs. Alfredo and Michael for worshiping with us!

Finally, we will be having our annual leaf clean up on Saturday November 25 starting at roughly 9am. We will be cleaning the leaves and the interiors of our Parish Hall and Church. Food will be provided and it is a great opportunity to meet other Parishioners.

Finally, I would like to thank our Christian Charities ministry for another Bazaar. As expected, the food was a personal favorite.

God Bless
