The Miraculous Draught of Fishes

by Raphael (1483-1520). Commissioned by Pope Leo X (c.1515-16).
Royal Collection Trust, HM The Queen / Victoria and Albert Museum, London

“Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.”

(Luke 5.5)

In the Incarnation, God loves us so passionately that He enters fully into the messiness of our human lives, stinky fishing nets and all. And, just as for Peter, it is often in the very midst of our ordinary, everyday lives that Jesus comes to us and calls us to bring His message of God’s love into our world. Our listening ear to a distraught co-worker, even when we are behind on a project, reflects a God who cares deeply for us. Getting up in the middle of the night to comfort a frightened child speaks to a God who is always present to us. Heard with the ears of faith, the most mundane moments of our daily lives can be a call to follow Christ’s way of self-giving love.

When we celebrate the Eucharist, we profess our belief that God comes to us most profoundly through the ordinary things of life. Simple bread and wine become Christ’s Body and Blood. Nourished and transformed by His Real Presence, may we who celebrate this mystery today become the gift of God’s presence to our world.
