THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

A few words from our Pastor:-

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. Together we recall the fact that God’s mercy is greater than the evil that we experience. However, it is a strange thing that mercy is so hard to accept. We are either too proud to admit help or so proud that we are blind to the fact that we need it. Similarly, we are also too proud to give mercy. We know all too well the indignance we feel when affronted. However, we mustn’t waste time praying for peace in our world when we refuse to show mercy in our lives. Humility is the soil of mercy; faith is the seed; hope is the water; Love is the flower; the Son is the energy and the goal.

Those who are ill.
