THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

Reflection for the week

You Are The Light Of The World

The Church was founded for the purpose of spreading the Kingdom of Christ throughout the earth for the glory of God the Father, to enable all men to share in his saving redemption, and that through them the whole world might enter into a relationship with Christ. In the Church there is a diversity of ministries but a oneness of mission. Christ conferred on the apostles and their successors the duty of teaching, sanctifying, and ruling in His name and power. But the laity likewise share in the priestly, prophetic, and royal office of Christ and therefore have their own share in the mission of the whole people of God in the Church and in the world.

They exercise the apostolate in fact by their activity directed to the evangelisation and sanctification of men and to the penetrating and perfecting of the temporal order through the spirit of the gospel. In this way, their temporal activity openly bears witness to Christ and promotes the salvation of men. Since the laity, in accordance with their state of life, live in the midst of the world and its concerns, they are called by God to exercise their apostolate in the world like leaven, with the ardour of the spirit of Christ.

The laity derive the right and duty to the apostolate from their union with Christ the head; incorporated into Christ's Mystical Body through Baptism and strengthened by the power of the Holy Spirit through Confirmation, they are assigned to the apostolate by the Lord himself. Not only that they may offer spiritual sacrifices in everything they do, but also that they may witness to Christ throughout the world. The sacraments, especially the most Holy Eucharist, communicate and nourish that charity which is the soul of the entire apostolate.

Such a life requires a continual exercise of faith, hope, and charity. Only by the light of faith and by meditation on the word of God can one always and everywhere recognise God, in whom we live, and move, and exist (Acts 17:28). The very testimony of their Christian life and good works done in a supernatural spirit have the power to draw men to belief and to God; for the Lord says, your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.

From the Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity, Apostolicam Actuositatem, solemnly promulgated by Pope VI, 18 November, 1965

Please pray for:
