

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday, October 6, 2019

Father Alfredo: God knows our joys, hopes and fears. In complete trust, let us bring our needs and prayers before him.

May the Extraordinary Missionary Month of October, initiated by Pope Francis, be a graced time of personal and communal conversion so as to encounter Jesus in a deeper way and share in his Spirit-led mission to transform the world into a civilization of love and justice,
let us pray to the Lord.

During National Catholic Health Care Week, we pray for the physicians, nurses, employees, volunteers and all who serve our Catholic health care agencies. May they reflect the face of Jesus as they care for those experiencing illness, disability, and end of life, let us pray to the Lord.

Let us pray for our children who are beginning their journey of faith in their catechism classes; that they may affirm their faith in Jesus,
let us pray to the Lord.

For all who are ill, may they be blessed with caring friends, family and caregivers to support and console them in their time of need,
let us pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, especially Alec Perez de Tagle, may they be welcomed into their glorious dwelling place in heaven,
let us pray to the Lord.

Fr. Alfredo: Eternal God...

Bless your church with holy and faithful priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of your Son, so that in him, with Him and through Him, we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
