

Twenty-Eighth Sunday In Ordinary Time
Sunday, October 13, 2019

Father Alfredo: Secure in the knowledge of God's love for us, let us now offer him our prayers.

For Pope Francis and all bishops, may the Lord bless them with the gifts necessary for leading our Church in these difficult times, let us pray to the Lord.

For leaders of nations, may God guide them as they work to protect the sanctity of life from conception through natural death, let us pray to the Lord.

For us as we prepare to vote, that we support those candidates who uphold the dignity of each person, and who will work towards the end of poverty in Canada, let us pray to the Lord.

For each one of us and our families, that this celebration of Thanksgiving may be a joyful time, recognizing the many gifts that we are receiving from God, let us pray to the Lord.

For all who are ill, may they be blessed with caring friends, family and caregivers to support and console them in their time of need, let us pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, especially Marguerite Pigeau, may they be welcomed into their glorious dwelling place in heaven, let us pray to the Lord.

Fr. Alfredo: Eternal God...

Bless your church with holy and faithful priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of your Son, so that in Him, with Him and through Him, we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
