

Twenty-Ninth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Saturday, October 19, 2019

Father Alfredo: God our Father never tires of hearing our prayers, and delights in us asking for His help. Let us bring our needs before Him.

Following Pope Francis' guidance, we pray that in this Missionary month of October, we may proclaim the message of Christ; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable, with the utmost patience, let us pray to the Lord.

For the success of the Diocesan Appeal, that it will reach out and fulfill the needs of the communities and people most in need, let us pray to the Lord.

For all refugees, searching for a safe home, and for our new government that they would welcome refugees, let us pray to the Lord.

For the positive outcome of the Synod in the Amazon, that the Holy Spirit may guide the church leaders gathering to make good decisions for the urgent needs, let us pray to the Lord.

For all who are ill, may they be blessed with caring friends, family and caregivers to support and console them in their time of need, let us pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, especially, Trudy Card, may they be welcomed into their glorious dwelling place in heaven, let us pray to the Lord.

Fr. Alfredo: Eternal God...

Bless your church with holy and faithful priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of your Son, so that in Him, with Him and through Him we may love You more deeply and serve You more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
