

Thirtieth Sunday In Ordinary Time October 27, 2019 (Sunday)

Father Alfredo: God never tires of hearing our prayers. Let us bring our needs before him.

For Pope Francis and all who preach the Gospel, may the Holy Spirit give them courage and humility in their proclamation of the Good News, let us pray to the Lord.

For the newly elected government, may the Lord grant them the wisdom in doing what is right and just for the people of Canada, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who face adversity, suffering or severe illness, and for those who love and care for them, let us pray to the Lord.

For the success of the Diocesan Appeal, that it will reach out and fulfill the needs of the communities and people most in need, let us pray to the Lord.

For Annika and Michael, as they are received today in our faith, that they may grow in the light of our Lord, Jesus and become a true disciple of a new humanity, let us pray to the Lord.

For all who are ill, may they be blessed with caring friends, family and caregivers to support and console them in their time of need, let us pray to the Lord.

For all who have died especially, Anna Nguyen, may they be welcomed into their glorious dwelling place in heaven, let us pray to the Lord.

Fr. Alfredo: Eternal God...

Bless your church with holy and faithful priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of your Son, so that in him, with him and through him we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
