

Thirty-Third Sunday In Ordinary Time
November 17, 2019

Father Alfredo: As we entrust ourselves to God's care and protection, let us offer our petitions to our Father in heaven.

For all the Church who teach the faith, may God bless them for their charity and grant them wisdom as they minister, let us pray to the Lord.

For civil authorities and members of the judicial system, may God strengthen them in righteousness and justice,
let us pray to the Lord.

For those who suffer from physical or mental struggles, may God's healing Spirit restore them to full health, let us pray to the Lord.

As we live the sign of the times, awaiting the final glory of the coming of Christ, may we renew our hope in Christ's promise,
let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for all the people in the world, who are suffering from wars, unrest and persecution, remembering especially the people in Hong Kong, Ukraine and the Middle East,
let us pray to the Lord.

For all who are ill, may they be blessed with caring friends, family and caregivers to support and console them in their time of need,
let us pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, may they be welcomed into their glorious dwelling place in heaven, let us pray to the Lord.

Fr. Alfredo: Eternal God...

Bless your church with holy and faithful priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of your Son, so that in him, with him and through him we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
