Body, Blood and Water

Jean Allen

Mark's account of the institution of the Eucharist is short and to the point but John's account speaks of something else and in celebrating the Body and Blood of Christ, we need to be aware of what happened right after Jesus said the words of consecration and before they all headed out to the Mount of Olives.

He washed the disciple's feet. This one action flowed – and flows – out of the Eucharist. The two actions are part and parcel of each other. As we celebrate the huge gift of the Eucharist, we need to be mindful of the fact that Jesus chose that time to wash his disciple's feet when he could have done so at any time during his ministry. If we honor the Body and Blood of Christ then we must honor foot washing as the natural flow after we receive the Eucharist.

Obviously, we're not talking about literally washing feet. But think a minute about what Jesus illustrated to his disciples. Jesus consecrated the bread and the wine of sacrifice and then he consecrated the water of service. He did not mean for the reception of his Body and Blood to be a private 'just me and Jesus' moment; his Body and Blood is meant to be shared through service to one another and the world. This service doesn't have to be big or even publicly noticeable. Even just listening compassionately to someone, refraining from criticism, affirming someone, being inclusive to someone who is alone or speaking to someone who isn't part of your friend group are foot washing actions and doing these things, or actions like them, keep the Blood of Christ circulating the way it was meant to circulate.

If we always 'receive and leave', we are blocking the full health of the Body of Christ. We know that poor circulation in our physical bodies can cause all sorts of health problems and the same is true when we practice poor Blood circulation with our community and with the world.

Keep the Blood flowing with the water of service.

Re: Clergy Assignment

We are currently discerning pastoral ministry options for Sacred Heart and ask for your patience and prayers.

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE

Marilyn Bojko (PPC Chair) / Andrew Cripps (Finance Chair)

On Friday, 24 May 2024, Bishop Gary sent a MEMO (Please see the MEMO above) to Clergy, Religious, Pastoral Administrators, CISDV Administrators, and the office staff of parishes and the Pastoral Centre.

With Fr. Jan's departure as Pastor of Sacred Heart Parish, Bishop Gary Gordon has called upon Andrew Cripps, Finance Chair, and Marilyn Bojko, Parish Pastoral Council Chair, to act as the newly formed Executive Committee for Sacred Heart Parish.

Until further notice and awaiting direction from Bishop Gary Gordon, at present this weekend's Masses at Sacred Heart will be celebrated by Fr. Shijo George at 4 pm on Saturday, and Fr. Eduardo Santos at 9 am on Sunday.

We extend our gratitude to Fr. Shijo and Fr. Eduardo!

The Sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday, June 15, 2024 will be celebrated, as planned, with Bishop Gary.

At this point, there is a pause on all weekday Masses.

Celebration plans for the Feast of Sacred Heart on Friday, June 7, are cancelled.

As we experience this abrupt change in our parish, please be positive and grateful for what we have had, what we do have, and continue to care for one another; taking it one day at a time.

We will keep you informed and updated as we receive direction from our Bishop, who will lead us through these challenging times.

Yours in Christ: Marilyn Bojko & Andrew Cripps
